TOPIC 3.6.1

Time Decides the Status

Rules commonly used in fare construction.

TOPIC 3.6.2

Stopover Rules & Conditions (Cat 8)

Number Allowed

Fare may permit 0, 1, 2 or unlimited stopovers.

Charges

Free, or a fixed amount per stopover.

Where

Some fares allow stopovers only at specific points.

Direction

Limits per direction (outbound / inbound).

TOPIC 3.6.2

Agent Tips

Visa

Stopovers mean entering the country — check visa rules.

Baggage

Bags may be checked only to the stopover city.

Taxes

Stopovers can add arrival/departure taxes.

REMEMBER

A 25-hour “connection” is a stopover in fare terms — even if the passenger never leaves the airport.

TOPIC 3.6.3

Layover (Transfer) vs Stopover

Layover / Transfer

- Short connection only
- Coded “X” in fare calculation
- Usually no extra charge
- Does not break fare component

vs

Stopover

- Longer deliberate break
- Normal city in fare calc (no X)
- May carry a charge
- Can create extra fare components

TOPIC 3.6.3

Transfer vs Stopover in a Fare Calc

The “X/” prefix makes all the difference.

- X/DXB means passenger only transfers in Dubai.
- Without X/, DXB is a stopover.
- Stopover may add a charge (S amount).
- Check Cat 8 before selling.

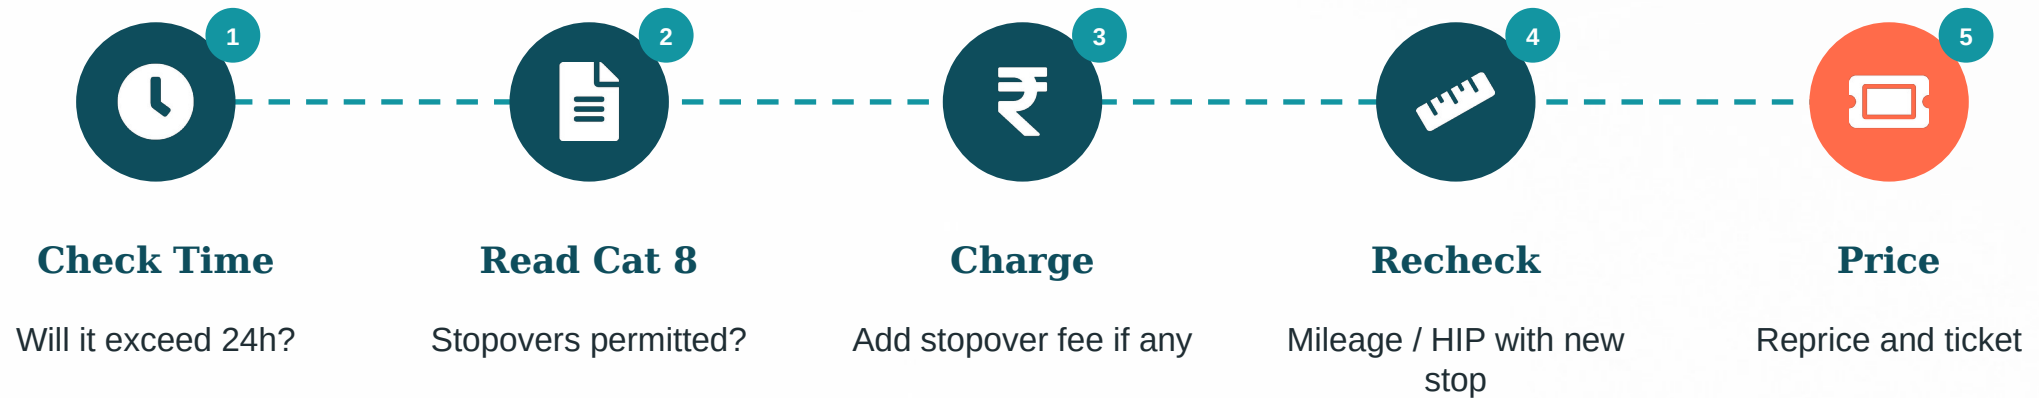

FARE CALCULATION (illustrative)

// transfer only
DEL EK X/DXB EK LON 540.00

// stopover in Dubai
DEL EK DXB EK LON
    S100.00 540.00
NUC640.00 END

DEL–DXB 2 nights–LON	Stopover	Check Cat 8 / charge
BOM–DEL 6h wait–IXL (domestic)	Stopover*	May need separate fare
BLR–SIN 20h overnight–SYD	Transfer	None ($\leq 24\text{h}$)
