4.5.1

What Is a Void?

Same day

Usually allowed only on the day of issue (before BSP sales reporting cut-off).

Unused

No coupon may be used or checked in.

Status V

Coupons become V (void); no sale is reported.

WHY IT MATTERS

A void cancels the sale as if it never happened — no refund processing, no penalty (unless the agency charges a fee). Miss the window and it becomes a refund.

4.5.1

Void vs Refund

Void

- Same day of issue
- Before reporting cut-off
- No penalty from airline
- Instant

vs

Refund

- After the void window
- Fare rule penalties apply
- Processed via BSP/airline
- Takes days

4.5.2

Voluntary vs Involuntary Cancellation

Voluntary (passenger)

- Passenger changes plans
- Fare rules apply fully
- Penalties charged
- Refund per Cat 33

vs

Involuntary (airline)

- Flight cancelled/changed by airline
- No penalty
- Full refund of unused value or free rebooking
- Possible compensation

4.5.2

Impact on Refunds & Reissues

Voluntary Refund

Fare – penalty + unused taxes.

Involuntary Refund

Full unused value, no penalty.

Voluntary Reissue

Fee + fare difference.

Involuntary Reissue

Free rebooking, often any class available.
